Day 02 Suzhou

Activities: We are going to visit the Garden of Humble Administrator firstly in the morning. The garden is the best representative of Chinese classical gardens, constructed in the Ming dynasty. Focused on a central pond with pavilions, terraces, chambers, and towers located nearby, the garden is divided into three parts: the eastern, middle and western parts. After lunch, we will visit the Tiger Hill, known also as Surging Sea Hill, is a large hillock, standing 36 meters high and covering an area of some 14,100 square meters. Going up to the hill, you will find a number of historical sites, including some from 2,500 years ago, which are as old as the city of Suzhou. Sent back to hotel, end of tour. International/Domestic flight/train arrangement is on your own.
